This architectural rendering shows a two-story house with a combination of stone and wood siding. The roof is dark grey with a gabled design and a central chimney. A dormer with three windows is positioned on the left side of the roof. The front porch is covered with a dark roof and has a railing. The house is surrounded by various trees, including some with autumn-colored leaves, and flowering bushes in the foreground. A yellow circle with the letter 'B' is located in the bottom left corner of the image.

This architectural elevation drawing shows a two-story house with a gabled roof covered in grey shingles. On the left, a covered front porch features a dark wood frame with four support posts and a flat roof. The main body of the house has a combination of light-colored stone masonry and red brick. A prominent stone chimney with a dark metal cap is located on the roofline. The front facade includes a large set of six multi-paned windows arranged in a 2x3 grid, flanked by smaller single windows. A small dormer window is visible on the right side of the roof. The house is surrounded by landscaping, including a large green tree on the left, a yellow-leafed tree in the center, and various shrubs and flowers at the base. A human figure is placed on the porch for scale. The drawing is labeled with a yellow circle containing the letter 'C' in the bottom left corner.
